Anvil Mining Joins S&P/TSX Composite Index

Montréal, Canada: Anvil Mining Limited (TSX, ASX: AVM) today announced that it has joined the S&P/TSX Composite Index. Also effective today, Anvil Mining has joined the S&P/TSX Materials, Metals & Mining Sector Index.

Bill Turner, President and CEO of Anvil Mining stated, “We are very pleased to have been selected for inclusion in the S&P/TSX Composite and Material, Metals & Mining indices and believe this will increase Anvil’s visibility and liquidity for the benefit of our shareholders. This marks another significant milestone in the Company’s history as we establish ourselves as the leading copper producer in the Democratic Republic of Congo, offering a strong growth profile and solid shareholder returns”.

The S&P/TSX indices are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors for index funds and as benchmarks for both passive and active investment strategies. The size of the S&P/TSX Composite Index and its broad economic sector coverage has made the S&P/TSX Composite Index the premier indicator of market activity for Canadian equity markets.

Anvil Mining Limited is an unhedged copper and silver producer whose shares are listed for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange (as common shares) and the Australian Stock Exchange (as CDIs) under the symbol AVM. It owns and operates the Dikulushi copper-silver mine and the Kulu copper tailings operation in the Katanga Province of the DRC. In addition, the Company is currently developing the Kinsevere project as the Company’s third mine in the DRC.

**One common share on the Canadian share register is equivalent to one CDI (Chess Depositary Instruments) on the Australian register.*
