June 30, 2008

It has come to our attention that there is currently a proliferation of fraudulent website postings offering copper cathodes, gold nuggets and other similar products for sale using the name “AMCK Mining s.p.r.l.”

AMCK Mining s.p.r.l. is a subsidiary of Anvil Mining Limited formed under the laws of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and it carries on the business of mining and processing copper/cobalt ore deposits at Kinsevere in the DRC.

The website postings which purport to be made by AMCK Mining s.p.r.l. are neither made nor authorized by AMCK Mining s.p.r.l. and have no connection whatsoever to it or to any other member of the Anvil group of companies.

AMCK Mining s.p.r.l. does not solicit sales over the Internet and does not sell any products directly to consumers. In addition, AMCK Mining s.p.r.l. conducts business only in the Democratic Republic of Congo. It is strongly recommended that you not deal with any individual or company who solicits you by email, or who you locate using the Internet, if that person or company purports to represent or to be AMCK Mining s.p.r.l.
